

HALL CENTER FOR THE HUMANITIES
UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS
DISABILITY STUDIES SEMINAR presents

SUBINI ANNAMMA

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, KU SPECIAL EDUCATION

“Disrupting the Carceral State through the Socio-spatial Dialectic:
Exploring the Trajectories of Incarcerated Young Women of Color with Disabilities”

THURSDAY JANUARY 26, 2017
3:30 PM – 5:00 PM
HALL CENTER FOR THE HUMANITIES
SEMINAR ROOM 1
OPEN TO KU FACULTY,
GRADUATE STUDENTS, AND STAFF

CART (Communication Access Realtime Translation) is provided for deaf and hard of hearing participants and audience members. The Americans with Disabilities Act guarantees civil rights of people with Multiple Chemical Sensitivities. Please help us maintain an accessible seminar by not wearing or using fragrances of any kind, including but not limited to perfumes, colognes, and scented lotions or oils.

HALL CENTER FOR THE HUMANITIES
900 Sunnyside Ave, Lawrence, KS 66044/785.864.4798/hallcenter@ku.edu
FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT ONE OF THE DISABILITY STUDIES SEMINAR
CO-DIRECTORS: John Derby (johnderby@ku.edu), Sherrie Tucker (sjtucker@ku.edu),
Ray Mizumura-Pence (rpence@ku.edu)