

Bill Tuttle Distinguished Lecture in American Studies

Uninhabited: Race, Reading, and the Archives

Kevin Young

*Director, the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,
New York Public Library.*

Thursday
October 13
3:30 p.m.

Woodruff Auditorium
Kansas Union

Sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Hall Center for the Humanities, KU Libraries, Office of Minority Affairs, Distinguished Foundation Professors Beth Bailey and David Roediger, Student Athlete Support Services, and the Departments of African and African-American Studies, American Studies, and English