

*The Symposium celebrates
Black Love with a week of events, including:*

Sept. 11: "A Night at the Movies"

with Director Doug McHenry, Professor Kevin Willmott, and Dr. Nicole Hodges-Persley 6:30PM-8:30PM • Lawrence Public Library

Sept. 12: Screening • Pariah

with Dr. Robert Minor, Dr. Randal Jelks, and Dr. Katie Batza 6:00PM-8:00PM • Pine Room, Kansas Union

Sept. 14: Dr. Pamela Newkirk • Journalist

"A Love No Less: Recovering the Relics of African American Romance" 5:30PM-6:30PM • Spencer Museum of Art

Sept. 15: Dr. Mark Anthony Neal • Cultural Critic

*"From 'Tea Cake' to 'Hollywood': Hurston, Queen Sugar and When Black Masculinity is Grown"
9:00AM-10:00AM • The Commons, Spooner Hall*

Sept. 15: Dr. Anthony Sparks • Writer/Producer

*"Radical Love/Everyday Blackness: Zora Neale Hurston and Her Televisual Descendants in the 21st Century"
7:30PM-8:30PM • Lawrence Arts Center*

Sept. 16: Dr. Tera Hunter • Historian

*"Black Love and Marriage in Bondage and Freedom"
9:00AM-10:00AM • The Commons, Spooner Hall*

Sept. 18: Marathon Reading • Their Eyes Were Watching God

12:00PM-9:00PM • Various downtown Lawrence locations

FULL schedule of events at
BLS.KU.edu

SPONSORS

Kansas Humanities Council • Office of the Chancellor

Hall Center for the Humanities • Office of Diversity and Equity

University Honors Program • College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

University Libraries • English • Women, Gender, & Sexuality Studies • Theatre

History • Art History • African & African-American Studies • Classics • American Studies

Sociology • Religious Studies • School of Journalism and Mass Communications • The Project on the History of Black Writing